Oil Politics And Violence Nigerias

I picked up Max Siollun's book (Oil, Politics and Violence: Nigeria's Military Coup Culture 1966-1976), and could not put it down until the last page. It reads like a fast paced thriller; an unbiased narrative of Nigeria's birth - the politics and circumstances within which this young nation was nurtured, and the pitfalls of the competing interests of all the stakeholders - the colonizer and the colonized.
