Teaching dictation Once students using Open Court Reading and SRA Imagine It! start to learn specific sound/symbol relationships, dictation is used to help them learn to encode as well as decode words. This formally begins in first grade. This is the students' introduction to correct spelling.

Open Court Reading

For word study, teachers instruct students using SRA's Open Court Reading Foundational Skills lessons and materials. This approach is different from the traditional "Friday spelling tests." Instead the focus is on learning how to appropriately utilize important, high frequency words in students' everyday writing, as well as studying word patterns in an explicit and systematic way.
